

Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander Support Program 2023

Bayside Christian College is pleased to offer financial support to Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander families who would like to join our community, but who cannot afford the fees as a result of financial hardship.

In order to be eligible for this program, parents making the application, must be able to demonstrate their child's commitment to school, regular attendance and application.

The Bayside Christian College Bursary program is designed to provide support to members of these communities to access a high quality, Christian education at Bayside Christian College.

Successful applicants will be expected to maintain an active engagement in the life of the College.

Interested Applicants must complete the application form and submit it to the College by 30 September. For further details – go to www.bayside.qld.edu.au

Please note that these Bursaries can only be offered if a place exists for enrolment at Bayside Christian College. Families interested in applying for this Bursary are advised to apply early to have an opportunity of being offered a place at the College.

Applications for the Bayside Christian College Bursary Program are highly sought after. The College welcomes your application and thanks you for your interest in our College.

In order to be provided with a Bursary for College Fees, you must be already enrolled at the College or be offered a place at the College. These are two different processes. Students may be offered a Bursary pending an offer of enrolment at Bayside Christian College.

Your application should consist of this form, the requested school reports and an additional statement addressing the following:

1. Why do you wish your child to attend Bayside Christian College?
2. Describe your child's application, effort, and attitude toward learning.
3. Please attach a 1-page statement from your child that explains why they would like to attend our College.
4. Please complete the Bayside Christian College Financial Questionnaire.

I wish you every blessing in your application.
